This guide explains your child’s Initial English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC) Student Score Report. Please speak to your child’s teacher if you have questions.

What is on the Student Score Report?

1. Your child’s name and test information
   Your child’s name, grade, and the testing year are shown.

2. Information about the ELPAC
   A short description of the Initial ELPAC and why students take the assessment is provided.

3. Overall score and performance level
   Your child’s overall score and performance level are shown. This test has three performance levels.

4. Oral language level and written language level
   Your child’s overall score is a combination of the oral language level (listening and speaking) and the written language level (reading and writing).

5. Initial ELPAC score levels and descriptors
   This table shows the three performance levels and their score ranges, followed by a short description of the English skills that children at the performance levels typically have.

6. Notices for some students
   Some students take an alternate test in place of the ELPAC. In other cases, a testing irregularity may happen during an ELPAC administration. If either of these situations applies to your child, a notice will appear in this area of the Student Score Report.
